

WHAT DID YOU DO TODAY?

So you've been around for many years
helping to spread A.A.
You've worked like hell since you first came in,
But what did you do today?
I heard your pitch....
it was kind of long.
You really told them how
you worked the steps in '41,
But how are you working them now?
Do you still get up from your soft warm bed
when someone is in trouble?
Do you grab your hat and your A.A. book
and get there on the double?
Or have you forgotten the early times
when you were sort of new?
Maybe you've been around so long
A.A.'s old hat to you.
Maybe you're one of the senior saints,
sober and satisfied.
Maybe you've forgotten when you were sick,
and when you damn near died.
Maybe I shouldn't bring it up ...
maybe you're too blase',
but just for the hell of it, Mister ...
What did you do today?
Have you been around so cockeyed long
you can leave it to Harry or Sam?
'Cause you're not your brother's keeper
and you don't give a damn?
Maybe tonight the fights are on or you're going to the old ball game.
So what the hell, if the guy is sick,
he has only himself to blame.
Well, Mister, you have a perfect right to work on your own A. A.
And you know you'll do it your way,
no matter what I say.
But tonight before you go to bed,
just look in the glass and pray that you and the Lord know the answer to
